Civic facilities in Aravali and Mandakni Enclave

2139. SHRI NANA DESHMUKH: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government had promised to construct a Community Centre, Barat ghar and Senior Citizens' Club on a plot of land in-between Aravali and Mandakini Enclave in Alaknanda for the residents of fifteen welfare associations living in that area for past two decades;

(b) whether his ministry had collected initial payment towards the cost of small plot of land from the Ministry of Health & Welfare for CGHS dispensary (No. 75) on the aforesaid plot;

(c) what steps have been taken on both the points for tackling the genuine problems of the residents; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD).(a) Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has reported that on the basis of requests received from the Resident Welfare Associations of Alakananda and Mandakini Enclave for providing community hall a plot measuring 2000 sqm. has been carved out of the Community Centre located in the area.

(b) to (d) DDA has stated that the CGHS had deposited the necessary amount towards the allotment of land in the year 1995 but due to encroachment, the possession of the same could not be handed over. The encroachment has since been removed and the DDA has initiated the process of demarcation of the plot in the layout plan.
